Rosin quiet Turpentine quiet.

With David B. Hill active in the cause in New York State, the Charlotte Observer says Democratic unity and consequent prospects of victory begin to look like old times.

At least, says the Charlotte Chronicle, ex-Senator McLaurin, of South Carolina, is neither a Democrat nor a hypocrite. That much is to be said in his favor, and it is a whole lot to say, as politics go these days.

Mr. Kitchin can certainly lay claim to the "strenuous life." Speaking once and sometimes twice a day and visiting every county in the State from Currituck to Cherokee is certainly a price to pay for the high honor to which he aspires.

That fellow Rice up in Madison county, who committed suicide to escape what the politicians had to say about him, certainly couldn't qualify for the lists in the National mud pumping with which the public has been regaled for the past two weeks.

New Hanover Democrats are reminded of the present local campaign slogan: "Proper Representation in All State and District Conventions." The registration books are now open and it behooves every man to qualify himself at once for exercising his suffrage at the ballot box in November.

Those people who predicate their support of Taft on the "Independence" that is inherent in them should have witnessed the steam roller grind at Chicago recently and then dropped over at Charlotte a little later and heard the rumble of the baby roller that was pressed into service for the State Republican convention.

Old General Apathy seems to have been routed bag and baggage in New Hanover by the Democratic cohorts who stormed the Court House Wednesday night. There was no need of reinforcements. The re-inforcements came up in front on this occasion and the luke-warm fellows received every encouragement to take back seats if that was their preference.

That little bobbin trust reputed to J. Elwood Cox seems to be something more than a campaign bugaboo after all. Suit has just been filed in Cumberland Superior Court by a sub-contractor alleging breach of contract, which is one of the favorite diversions of monopolies when the terms of the original contracts do not seem to suit their purposes. However, the allegations of this particular breach will soon be threshed out in the courts and then we'll know the facts.

IN SUPERIOR COURT

Paul James, Greenville Sound Negro, Not Guilty of Criminal Assault as Charged.

RADCLIFFE GETS 25 YEARS

Submitted to Murder in Second Degree—Furman Lee or B. Cox Will Probably Go on Trial Today. Other Notes.

Two of the capital felonies on the docket at the present term of New Hanover Superior Court were disposed of yesterday, Paul James, the Greenville Sound negro charged with criminal assault, having been found not guilty by a jury at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon and Charles Radcliffe, the negro recently brought back here from Philadelphia to answer for the murder of another negro at a pool room at Sixth and Brunswick streets a few years ago, having submitted through his counsel, Brooke G. Empie, Esq., to murder in the second degree, and having been sentenced to 25 years in the State penitentiary.

Nearly all the morning and afternoon session of the court yesterday was taken up with the completion of the trial of the negro James, the defense having introduced a number of other witnesses and the State some in rebuttal. Argument was begun shortly before the noon recess and the case went to the jury about 4 o'clock. After remaining out less than an hour, a verdict of not guilty, which was generally expected, was returned. Messrs. Pait & Woody and B. G. Empie appeared for James and conducted an able defense of their client who was on trial for his life. The solicitor was assisted in the prosecution by County Attorney Marsden Bellamy and no stone was left unturned to get at the full facts in the case, which seems to have been one that should never have gotten into court.

James was also held on another charge of assault with a deadly weapon upon the chief prosecuting witness but he was allowed to give $100 bond for his appearance for trial on the latter charge today. The defendant is a one-armed negro and seems to have been rather badly used by his neighbors in the tales they told in court.

The case of Charles Radcliffe was taken up last thing before adjournment yesterday afternoon and attorneys for both sides, Mr. Empie for the defense and Solicitor Duffy and County Attorney Bellamy for the State, argued at some length as to the measure of punishment to be imposed upon Radcliffe. The extreme penalt is 30 years in the State prison and the State contended for that, but Mr. Empie succeeded in getting his client off with 25 years. Radcliffe is now 25 years of age and shot his adversary because of a row that was precipitated in the negro pool room at Sixth and Brunswick when his victim unwittingly jabbed him in the stomach with the end of a billiard cue.

The court will probably take up the case of either Furman Lee, the young white man charged with killing a negro boy in the southern part of the city last Winter, or may enter upon the trial of B. Cox, the white man charged with burning the first toll house some weeks ago, particulars of which are well remembered. Hon. John D. Bellamy will appear with the Solicitor for the State and it is learned that the defense will be conducted by A. J. Marshall and Herbert McClammy, Esq. Assistant Insurance Commissioner W. A. Scott, of Greensboro, and Policeman Smith, of Fayetteville, are here as witnesses for the State.

Field Secretary Coming.

Rev. J. B. Carpenter, of Richmond, Va., field secretary of the Presbyterian Sunday School work, will arrive in the city today and will hold a meeting at 8:15 o'clock tonight in the Sunday School room of the First Presbyterian Church for the officers and teachers of the Presbyterian Sunday Schools of the city. He will bring his Sunday School exhibit and his talk will be both interesting and instructive.

OPENING AT GAYLORD'S

Wealth of Beautiful Styles and Fancies Being Shown at Big Stores on Front Street—Millinery and Dry Goods.

Large and prettier than ever, embracing a wealth of the newest and most fastidious shapes, the display of Fall millinery at the Gaylord stores on North Front street yesterday served to attract large numbers of ladies not only from the city but from the surrounding country.

The small army of salespeople in the store had worked unceasingly for several days to brighten up every department of the giant establishment and it is safe to say that never before in the history of the store has there been more successful opening. Of course, the millinery department claimed first attention. Miss Alma Brown is in charge and during her recent stay in the North she selected one of the prettiest lines of millinery ever seen here. All the newest and latest styles are on display with many new and fashionable creations from the store's own work rooms.

There were so many pretty hats and so many becoming ones that it was a joy to even see them. As has been frequently told, hats are large—nay, huge—but they are beautiful. The feathers, the wings, the combinations of colors and the dash—that sweep that is so essential to one's happiness this year—all combine to make alluring models.

In the cloak department the display was tasteful and included suits, tailored and fancy, separate skirts and waists, evening wraps and fur coats. The suits showed touches of the directoire craze even if only in the large buttons and fancily shaped pockets.

The store this season has an unusually pretty line of dress goods. Mr. F. A. Muse is in charge and some of the favorite fabrics being shown are the Panamas in blacks and colors, ladies' cloth in all the different shades, Herring bone stripe suitings in the different shades, serges, mohair and flannels. The line of silks for waists and suits in blacks and colors and fancies is very complete. The store carries the most complete line of cotton suitings and waistings ever shown in this city. Then there are the lineen madras, chambrays, ginghams, etc.; in fact there are so many things in this stock that one can only get an idea by visiting the store, every department of which is resplendent with bright, new goods for the opening.

The millinery window, the creation of Mr. Joseph A. Hill, is especially attractive consisting of autumn foliage and morning glory effect. The opening will continue through today and all the ladies are asked to visit the store and see the beautiful display in every department. Excellent music on the piano by Mr. Paul Lupo adds to the gaiety of the opening which is an altogether brilliant one. The hours are from 9 A. M. to 7 P. M. and everybody is invited.

HURRICANE WARNINGS.

Were Displayed Yesterday at Southern Ports—Vessels in For Harbor.

Following the reports of threatening weather Wednesday, hurricane warnings were displayed yesterday at various Southern ports including Wilmington. The hurricane center is moving northward between the Nassau and Florida coast and the barometer yesterday at Nassau showed the wind blowing at the fearful velocity of eighty miles an hour. Two vessels lying off Cape Fear bar, these being among the nine reported yesterday, proceeded to Southport yesterday morning, and one more vessel was added to those off the bar.

The storm warning message received from the local weather bureau yesterday, was as follows: "Hurricane warning 11 A. M., Savannah, Charleston, Wilmington, Morehead City, Washington, Columbia, Edenton, Elizabeth City, Norfolk, Newport News, Fort Monroe. Hurricane center moving northward between Nassau and Florida coast. Barometer at Nassau, twenty-eight eighty-two, wind south eighty miles. GARRIOTT."

Bill of Sale for Turpentine.

According to the terms of a bill of sale filed for record yesterday, for a consideration of $10,000 the Standard Turpentine Company transfers to Geo. S. MacKenzie, of Chicago, 26,000 gallons of turpentine; 2,000 gallons of crude, first run, or about 35,000 gallons of refined turpentine at the factory of the company in Wilmington. This in exchange for animals transferred to George S. McKenzie in a bill of sale in New York, February 11th, 1908, and sold with his permission dated Chicago June 1st, 1908.

New Council at Maysville.

A new council of the Jr. O. U. A. M. will be instituted at Maysville, N. C., with appropriate installation exercises some time within the next few weeks. The fact that the latter town has made application for a charter was announced yesterday by Chief of Police N. J. Williams, district deputy. Some thirty citizens have signified their intention of becoming charter members and much interest is being taken in the organization of the new council.

IN LOCAL CAMPAIGN

Hon. W. C. Newland and Hon. B. R. Lacy to Speak Here Tonight.

HON. JOHN SHARP WILLIAMS

Effort to Get Him Here Next Monday. Mr. Kitchin's Appointments. Hearst Representative Here.

Never before, certainly not since the days of fusion in 1898, has a more vigorous campaign been waged locally than is being carried on just now by County Chairman John J. Furlong, of the Democratic Executive Committee, President Cameron F. McRae, of the Bryan and Kitchin Club, and members of the respective county organization in behalf of the Democracy.

And the people, too, are beginning to awake to a sense of their responsibility in this campaign and are manifesting a lively interest in party affairs, manifesting a loyalty and a devotion that gugurs well for the showing to be made by New Hanover Democracy in November. Following close upon the monster demonstration in honor of the Democratic nominee for Governor Wednesday night, the people of the city, both ladies and gentlemen, are to have the rare pleasure of hearing in the Court House this evening Hon. W. C. Newland, the Democratic nominee for Lieutenant Governor, and Hon. B. R. Lacy, the Democratic nominee for State Treasurer, both strong and vigorous men and able speakers. Mr. Newland will likely be introduced by Hon. John D. Bellamy and Hon. B. R. Lacy, by Capt. Tom McMillan, of Rocky Mount, a fellow of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. From Wilmington these gentlemen go to Burgaw tomorrow; to Elizabethtown Monday, Lumberton Monday night and Laurinburg Tuesday. All citizens are invited to hear them. Mr. Newland will be heard with special interest here from the fact that he married a former Wilmington lady, and Mr. Lacy from the fact that one of the first engines he ever ran as a locomotive engineer was out of Wilmington on the old Carolina Central of pleasant memory.

To Invite John Sharp Williams.

Tomorrow Chairman Furlong and President McRae, of the Bryan and Kitchin Club will go over to Newbern for the special purpose of inviting that distinguished Southerner to come to Wilmington for a speech either Monday afternon or Monday night. Mr. Williams comes to Newbern at the special request of Hon. Chas. R. Thomas, congressman from that district, who has promised to do his best to get Mr. Williams to accept the Wilmington invitation. It is to be hoped that he will accept and that a large crowd will hear him. Announcement definitely as to his coming will be made in Sunday's paper.

Hearst Representative Here.

Returning from Florida and South Carolina where he endeavored to drum up an electoral ticket for his chief, Mr. M. F. Ihmsen, the right hand bower of William Randolph Hearst, arrived in Wilmington yesterday in the interest of the Independence party movement in this State. An Independence League was organized here early in June by ex-Congressman Shuford, of Newton, who seems to have been the North Carolina representative of the Hearst political forces, but since the organization, nothing has been heard of it. Mr. Ihmsen called at the newspaper offices to get the names of some of the local leaders, but declined to discuss politics or his mission to the city, stating that he was merely passing through on his way to Goldsboro. He is evidently following up the itinerary of Mr. Shuford in the organization of the Leagues in June and it is expected that a Higsen and Graves electoral ticket will soon find its way into the field in this State. So far as is known the party has little support in New Hanover. Mr. W. V. Sellers is president of the local league and Mr. W. T. Penny is secretary and treasurer.

Mr. Kitchin at Southport.

Hon. W. W. Kitchin yesterday went down to Southport and addressed a large gathering of Brunswick Democrats in the Court House at 1:30 o'clock. He was introduced by State Senator Geo. H. Bellamy, who paid him a fine tribute. Mr. Kitchin delivered his usual splendid address and was heard with great enthusiasm. It had been arranged for him to speak in Franklin Square but rain at the hour announced for the meeting made an adjournment to the Court House advisable. In the audience were many people from the country attending court and it is the opinion of Democratic leaders at Southport, several of whom were interviewed, that the speech of Mr. Kitchin was a vote maker. Chairman Howard C. Curtis, of the Democratic Executive Committee, stated that the party affairs of the county were never in better shape and that an increased majority may be expected in November. Mr. Kitchin made a fine impression and any factional differences that may have existed disappeared when the people heard the matchless appeal in behalf of Democracy by its standard bearer in this State.

The Democrats will hold their county and legislative primary on Saturday, Oct. 10th, and the county convention at Lockwood's Folly on Oct. 14th. It is understood that the Republicans will announce their ticket at a convention to be assembled at Lockwood's Folly on the 17th of October.

Mr. Kitchin returned from Southport last evening and will leave on the early morning train today for Whiteville where the Columbus Democracy will extend him a royal welcome. The Delgado band will go up on the train with the distinguished speaker, returning on the late train tonight. Saturday Mr. Kitchin will be at Fayetteville.

State Senator Jackson Greer, of Columbus, and Tery A. Lyon, Esq., of Bladen, came over last night to accompany Mr. Kitchin to Whiteville this morning.

REHDER'S FALL OPENING

Beautiful Display of Millinery and Dry Goods at Big Department Store Yesterday—Concert in Evening—Continues Today.

An exposition of new ideas in fashions and fancies does not inaptly describe the wealth of beautiful things so artistically displayed at the big department store of J. H. Rehder & Co., the annual Fall opening of which establishment began yesterday morning and will continue through today.

The climax was perhaps reached last evening from 8:15 to 10 o'clock when an evening reception was given and the ladies thronged the big store and reveled in the delights of the many new and fashionable hats and other stylish millinery spread out for their inspection. To the accompainment of the murmur of admiration that constantly went up from the throngs of feninnity at the counters, Hollowbush's Orchestra discoursed sweet music and many declared it the most brilliant opening ever given at Rehder's.

Of course the millinery department is the cynosure of all eyes. This is again in charge of Miss Sarah Gardner and the display beggars description. The decorations all over the store are in pink and white, these colors being carried out with arch effects studded with pink and white roses, some of which are transparent and are lighted with incandescents. Pink bells, paper baskets, paper festoons and the like are used in endless variety. The windows are especially attractive. The shoe window was arranged by Mr. Luther Wessel; dress goods by Mr. M. L. Parker; the clothing by Mr. C. N. Southerland, the hats by Mr. H. E. Ortmann while the two millinery windows, the piece de resistance of the whole scheme are the work of Mr. E. Clayton Moore.

A wealth of new shapes and styles in hats and trimmings are shown in the millinery department, one of these attracting unusual attention being a $100 importation from Paris. It is of the directoire shape, of embroidered chiffon over satin with gold band around the top of the crown. It is possibly the most expensive hat ever shown in Wilmington. It is trimmed with yellow ostrich plumes. Among some of the other leading hats are the Pocahontas, the Robinson Crusoe, the inverted bowl shapes, the pill-box turbans and a variety of others. The colors this year are gun metal, taupe, Edison or Peacock blue and all the staple shades. In trimmings, the sweeping willow effects, velvet foliage, roses and plumes are strong. In spite of the inclement weather yesterday the throngs of ladies were fully up to the standard and a large number of orders were taken.

The dress goods department this year is also showing a wealth of new fabrics. The prevailing colors in dress goods are green, blue and brown, with the plain effects, Herring bone stripes and invisible plaids. In the heavier suitings the broadcloths are favorites, while Panamas and mohairs are also leaders. In silks there are the plain taffetas, suezine and liberty effects. There is also in the dry goods department a fine display of table linens, laces and ribbons. During this sale the firm is making a specialty of Louisienne 50c ribbons, six inches wide, at 19c. the yard. Other leaders are $7.50 oil paintings in gold frames, ebony front case, at $3.69. There is also being offered $1 black taffeta at only 59c a yard. Then in addition to these the firm is giving 10 per cent. off on all new furs purchased during the opening days. A large number of new novelties in cut glass are also on display.

The opening will continue today and all the ladies of Wilmington are most cordially invited.

DIPHTHERIA AT DUNN

Order Closing Graded Schools on Account of Prevalence of Disease.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Dunn, N. C., Oct. 1.—At a meeting of the Board of Aldermen last night the graded schools of the town were ordered closed for 10 days and all parents are requested to keep their children at home for eight days beginning this morning. Within 48 hours three cases of diphtheria have developed in as many families, Rev. A. J. Parker's little daughter, Annie Clyde, being one of the victims. All the cases among the white children have been of a very mild type so far. There have been only a few deaths and these, possibly one exception, have been negroes and live outside the city limits.

GIANTS BREAK EVEN

New Yorks Split Doubleheader With Phillies in National Pennant Chase.

CHICAGO CHAMPIONS WON

Only Two Games in American League New York and Philadelphia the Winners—Brooklyn Nationals Win From Boston.

National League Race.

Clubs.	W.	L.	Pct.
New York	94	54	.635
Pittsburg	95	55	.633
Chicago	95	55	.633
Philadelphia	79	69	.533
Cincinnati	72	79	.476
Boston	63	86	.423
St. Louis	49	101	.327
Brooklyn	50	98	.338

For an off day in baseball the few games which were played yesterday were of vast importance to the pennant chances of the three leading clubs in the National League race.

New York played two games in Philadelphia and was able to get an even break only, while Chicago defeated the Cincinnati team on the latter's home grounds. The results of these games caused the New Yorks to fall back two points in their percentage and enabled the Chicago club to draw two points closer to New York. This leaves Chicago and Pittsburg tied for second place with New York leading by the narrow margin of two points. The standing of the teams in the National League being as given above.

Only the second division teams of the American League played yesterday, the leading teams being on the road. This leaves the standing of the leaders as it was after yesterday's games.

Philadelphia, Oct. 1.—New York broke even with Philadelphia here today. The visitors knocked Corridon off the rubber in the first inning of the opening contest but the locals bunched hits off Mathewson and tied the score in the fourth inning.

In the last five innings Philadelphia could get only two hits off Mathewson, while Richie held his opponents to three hits. New York scored the winning run in the sixth when, with Devlin on first and two out, Magee muffed a drive by Needham, the former scoring.

Covaleski held New York to four hits in the second game and the home team won easily. They knocked Wiltse off the rubber in three innings and batter McGinnity freely. New York's runs were scored in the sixth inning on two bases on balls and Doolin's double. The scores:

New York	300 001 000	4	9 1
Philadelphia	200 100 000	3	10 1

Mathewson and Needham; Corridon, Richie and Dooin and Jacklitsch. Time 1:50. Umpires Klem and Johnstone.

Second Game:—

New York	000 002 000	2	4 6
Philadelphia	.003 010 11x	6	9 0

Wiltse, McGinnity and Needham. Covaleskie and Dooin. Time 1:38. Umpires Johnstone and Klem.

Cincinnati, Oct. 1.—Chicago had no trouble defeating Cincinnati today, the ragged fielding of the locals assisting the visitors in scoring. Ruelbach held the locals to two hits, both of which weer made by Egan. Score:

Cincinnati	000 000 000	0;	2; 4.
Chicago	010 400 001	6;	6; 1.

Spade and Schiel; Ruelbach and Kling. Time 1.27. Umpires Owen and Rigler.

Brooklyn, Oct. 1.—In a brilliant fielding game Brooklyn defeated Boston here today in the ninth inning by a batting rally. The score was two to one. The winning run came in the ninth on Burch's single, a sacrifice by Hummell, an infield out and Sheehan's timely single. Score:

Boston	000 010 000	1;	5; 0.
Brooklyn	100 000 001	2;	8; 3.

McCarthy and Graham; McIntyre and Dunn. Time 1.42. Umpire Emslie.

American League.

Philadelphia, Oct. 1.—Philadelphia won today's game from Boston in the first inning on misplays of the visitors followed by safe hits. Score:

Boston	000 200 000	2;	6; 3.
Philadelphia	300 000 02x	5;	8; 2.

Morgan and Donohue; Plank and Lapp. Time 1.40. Umpire Evans.

New York, Oct. 1.—New York defeated Washington here today in an interesting game in which Chesbro outpitched Johnson. The new players on the home team all did well. Cree made a wonderful running catch. The Score:

Washington	010 000 000	1	5 0
New York	001 000 10x	2	7 1

Johnson and Street; Chesbro and Kleinow. Time 1:30. Umpire Hurst.

THE CURRENCY QUESTION.

The guarantee of bank deposits is being made one of the "paramount" issues by Mr. Bryan in his present campaign, therefore, not a little interest attached a few days ago to an expression from the American Bankers' Association against this proposition. The question is one about which the laymen is supposed to know very little but as an evidence of thought on the question by the editor of the always well informed Charlotte Observer, the following from that paper of yesterday is respectfully submitted:

"It is unfortunate that the American Bankers' Association, which has of late years opposed all bank reforms not along narrow lines of class advantage, preferring to retain what Andrew Carnegie with little exaggeration terms "the worst banking system in the world" rather than give up any remotely profitable abuse, should now set itself against measures advocated by public-spirited bankers of the very highest financial authority and demanded by practically the entire American people. The Democratic national platform declares for protected bank deposits and the Republican national platform declares for postal savings banks; the American Bankers' Association declares against both. We favor the first and oppose the second; like nearly all the country besides, we recognize the need of some such action. The country's war-born banking and currency systems, very imperfectly related to business, clumsy in the extreme, periodically provoking the fear and contempt of Europe by wild gyrations, drag-nets for Wall Street speculation—these systems may not be remodeled along lines of demonstrated efficiency yet a while, but they may be steadied and improved at the same time that millions of depositors are directly benefitted. In speaking before the trust company section of the association Clarence Williams, of New York, declared that twenty per cent. of the banking power of the United States was in New York and that it was unanimously against the guarantee of bank deposits. He might very well have added, what everybody knows, that a great part of the other eighty per cent. of American banking power is at present grappled to New York in a manner which almost insures its domination by New York and Wall Street views. Wall Street would rather see postal savings banks than protected deposits, but it wants neither. The action of the American Bankers' Association, as taken through various sub-divisions, will make no good impression upon the country. It shows lack of sympathetic touch with that wide public which banks are chartered to serve, and it must, we repeat, be considered very unfortunate."

CHANCES GROWING BRIGHTER.

The Richmond News-Leader, always clear of vision and keen of perception, analyzes the outlook for Democratic success in November quite optimistically in a comparison of the betting odds now and a few months ago. The odds on Taft in Wall street are now only 5 to 2 and 6 to 5 on Chanler to be elected Governor of New York State. Heretofore the betting has been 5 to 1 on Taft and some have offered even greater odds. Mr. Bryan's chances, in the opinion of Wall street, therefore, have increased just 100 per cent. in the last two weeks. These figures appear to be pretty well borne out by independent and party newspaper estimates at all the large centres of political interest North. With these thoughts in mind The News-Leader goes on to say:

"Unquestionably, many thousands of people who on Sept. 1 thought Bryan had not a ghost of a chance, now feel that he is formidable and likely to become more so. The great advantage the Democrats have in the situation is the general apathy and indifference. These conditions always injure the party in power more than the party trying to gain power because the latter is likely to be more eager, agressive and active. The fellow who is trying to get in is more stirred than he who is simply trying to stay in. The Democrats have a further advantage in a large group of absolutely sure States which cannot be lost to them by any amount of apathy, while the Republicans have not more than four or five absolutely sure States to begin business with. Outside of this little group, any considerable absence from the polls might lose them all the deciding States.

"We do not predict or pretend to predict Mr. Bryan's election because we think predictions of the action of fifteen or sixteen million voters distributed over the continent are idle; but there can be no doubt that Mr. Bryan has gained ground since the beginning of the campaign."

MEASURES OF IMPORTANCE.

The Charlotte Chronicle is one of the few papers of editorial breadth that incline to the opinion that the solution of the freight problem is an easy one and not the bugaboo that the railway traffic people and the politicians would have us believe sometimes. The Chronicle's one remedy, and there is no gainsaying that it is a good one, is the development of the waterways of the country. Making a local application of this remedy for freight evils, the Chronicle says editorially Wednesday afternoon:

"Wilmington wants a deeper channel from port to sea and it has been demonstrated time and again that a uniform depth of 30 feet can be secured at a comparatively small expenditure by the government. A channel of that depth having been secured, a gateway through Wilmington would be opened to the markets of the world for the manufactured products of North Carolina. It would mean the multiplication by millions of Charlotte's wholesale trade. Through that gateway there would be an outflow and inflow of commerce that would pile up the wealth of the State at a marvelous rate. In connection with the waterways development would be needed only a measure for the preservation of the forests. The Chronicle very much hopes that the delegation which this State will send to Congress will be solidly wedded to these two measures—waterways development and forest preservation. That would be of much more importance to the material interests of the State than the mere political tag of the Congressman."

CURRENT COMMENT.

—If the truth were known, a number of public men who are standing up in the temple, patting themselves on the breast, and saying. "Thank God I am not like this other man. Joe Foraker" are probably a good deal worse, only Hearst has not got into connection with their letter files.—Americus Times Recorder. (Dem.)

—Mr. Bryan said with reason, in his last letter to the President, "I have lived in vain if your accusations have lost me a single friend." Many of the people dissent from certain views of public questions entertained by Mr. Bryan, but there are few, if any, who doubt his integrity or upon whom the suggestion that he has at any time been affiliated with or in sympathy with, a trust or lawless corporation, will make the slightest impression. Mr. Roosevelt bites a file.—Charlotte Observer. (Ind. Dem.)

—Harper's Weekly says "that Taft is the heir of the Roosevelt policies is true enough; that he is the heir of the Roosevelt idiosyncrasies is not true. It is to be hoped that nobody could possibly inherit the idiosyncrasies." It is to be hoped that this statement of the case is correct, but the man who so prides himself upon being an appendage to Mr. Roosevelt's coat tails, glorying in this fact while others think it is to his shame, could hardly repudiate his eccentricities while standing for all of his other infirmities and being proud of them.—Charlotte Observer. (Ind. Democratic.)

—Haskell calls Rooseevlt "the biggest four-flusher in the political business today," and says we ought to know what they think of "the rascal" down in Oklahoma. That is going some in billingsgate, but it scarcely comes up to the vituperative mark set by the President. The Democrats should send a hurry call to Europe for Ben Tillman and enter him as their champion in the great mud slinging contest to which Roosevelt has challenged them. This is getting to be the sort of campaign in which Tillman would shine.—Charleston Post, (Dem.,

—Colonel Bryan has been handling his side of the Roosevelt-Bryan controversy in a manner that has excited the administration of the people of the entire country. He has been direct and incisive, but dignified throughout. An impartial judge would say that as matters now stand, the colonel has the best of the controversy. He could well afford to drop it with his letter of yesterday, for, to do otherwise, would be to merely continue a profitless discussion. Should he not permit Mr. Roosevelt to provoke him to further controversy, he would be decidedly the gainer.—Charlotte Chronicle. (Ind. Democratic.)

—In justice to Mr. A. L. Jones, of Fairmont, we are glad to imform our readers that the Republican party in Robeson county made a slip-up when it apointed him a candidate, or nominee for county commissioner. Mr. Jones is a Democrat, he says he has voted a Democratic ticket in every election that he has voted, and we are glad for everybody to know that he is not a Republican if they did try to press him into service. You see their cunning trick, they made the appointment unbeknown to Mr. Jones hoping thereby to capture him. It takes hard work to rob a good Democrat of his rights, therefore Mr. Jones stands firm in the Democratic principles.—Fairmont Messenger. (Dem).

—"Some people," remarked the demoralizer, "never seem to be around when wanted." "Well," rejoined the moralizer, "it is better to be absent when wanted than to be present when you are not wanted."—Chicago News.

—"I can see you're worried about me, dear," said the very sick man. "O! not at all," replied his wife promptly. "But do you look so gloomy, then?" "I was thinking whether my sealskin sacque would be considered mourning."—Philadelphia Press.

—Mr. Wyss—My dear, I wish you would arrange your hair the way you had it last evening. Mrs. Wyss—Oh, Justin! I simply can't do it. It completely changes my appearance. Mr. Wyss (quietly)—I am fully aware of that, my love.—Judge.

—A grandmother was reproving her little grandchildren for making so much noise. "Dear me, children, you are so noisy today! Can't you be a litle more quiet?" "Now, grandma, you mustn't scold us. You see, if it wasn't for us you wouldn't be a grandma at all."—Harper's Weekly.

STAR BUSINESS LOCALS

They Make Business, They Bring Business.

25 Words For 25c

A Business Local

¶The paying qualities of a Star Business Local are demonstrated daily by the hundreds of satisfied advertisers who make use of this popular method of bringing their wants to the attention of the great host of Star readers. The cost is a mere trifle compared with the great results often accomplished by the use of one of these little business-pulling ads. Why not try one now?

A SHORT SPEECH.

Made by an Indian Chief In Reply to a Government Agent.

Old Shah-bah-Skong, the head chief of Mille Lac, brought all his warriors to defend Fort Ripley in 1862. The secretary of the interior and the governor and legislature of Minnesota promised these Indians that for this act of bravery they should have the special care of the government and never be removed.

A few years later a special agent was sent from Washington to ask the Ojibways to cede their lands and remove to a country north of Leech lake. The agent asked my help. I said:

"I know that country. I have camped on it. It is the most worthless strip of land in Minnesota. The Indians are not fools. Don't attempt this folly. You will surely come to grief."

He called the Indians in council and said:

"My red brothers, your great father has heard how you have been wronged. He said, 'I will send them an honest man.' He looked in the north, the south, the east and the west. When he saw me, he said, 'This is the honest man whom I will send to my red children.' Brothers, look at me! The winds of fifty-five years have blown over my head and silvered it with gray, and in all that time I have never done wrong to any man. As your friend I ask you to sign this treaty."

Old Shah-bah-Skong sprang to his feet and said:

"My friend, look at me! The winds of more than fifty winters have blown over my head and silvered it with gray, but they have not blown my brains away."

That council was ended.

THE NECK RUFF.

It Reached Its Full Glory In the Sixteenth Century.

One of the most peculiar and interesting evolutions in historic fashion is the growth and development of the ruff in England. This ruff began its career as a humble little something like a tuck running along the top of the chemisette from shoulder to shoulder. You can see it grow in the portraits of royal personages slowly, but surely, like a great linen flower opening its plaited petals from generation to generation. During the reign of Henry VII. it was scarcely more than a budding excrescence, but with Henry VIII. it had outgrown its tuck stage to the extent of reaching up to the ears and was beginning to sport a mild flare. Those were the days of such strict sumptuary laws that in order to wear black gemet you must be royal, to wear sable you must outrank your viscount neighbor, to wear marten or velvet trimmings you must be able to show an income of over 200 marks a year. The reign of Edward VI. and Queen Mary merely fostered the ruff without encouraging it to any greater development. But Queen Elizabeth, seeing in it possibilities for offsetting her red hair and clear skin, fanned it into vigorous life. In the sixteenth century the ruff burst into full bloom. Men and women, even tiny princesses, were overshadowed by the stiff rays of the ruff on all great occasions. Even over France, Germany and Italy it spread its white pinions and held unquestioned sway until it fell with the Roundheads.

"Yessah, but hit ain't nothin' lak dat. Ah jest desires to ax yo' what am de difference between ah storekeeper whose business is improvin' an' a man who selects feathers fo' sofa pillows?"

"That's a pretty hard nut to crack, Mr. Bones. Now, what is the difference between a storekeeper whose business is improving and a man who selects feathers for sofa pillows?"

"De storekeeper's business is pickin' up, an' de other man's business is pickin' down."

"Mr. T. N. Orr will sing the pathetic ballad, 'He Married Himself to a Marcel Wave, an' Now He's All at Sea.'"—Harper's Weekly.

Swankers.

A number of our contemporaries appear to be somewhat exercised as to the precise meaning of the word "swank." Swank, though usually called by other names, is the leading characteristic of Englishmen. Frenchmen used to talk of "perfidious Albion." It was simply another way of calling us swankers. To swank is, broadly, to make the thing that is not seem as the thing that is.—London Globe.

Not.

"Shall we marry, darling, or shall we knot?" was the short and witty line an ardent lover dispatched to the idol of his heart.

But, where the strangeness of the matter comes in, the girl replied: "I shall not. You may do as you please."

Moral Lesson Lost.

"Good for Squillips! I hear that since he quit drinking he has got rich."

"It's too bad to spoil that story, but it's the other way. Since he got rich he has quit drinking."—Chicago Tribune.

—Mrs. P. Q. Moore and Miss Mary Ella Moore left Wednesday evening for Baltimore where they will spend two weeks on a visit.

—Miss Carrie Maie King has returned from a visit of some time to her sister in Dover, N. C., and with friends and relatives in Kinston and Goldsboro.

—Mr. D. N. Blue, who recently resigned his position as stenographer for Mr. W. B. Cooper, left yesterday for his home in Fayetteville, where he will spend some time.

—Mrs. Fred Woodward, of Durham, has been spending several days in Wilmington on a visit to her sister, Mrs. B. S. Mills, on Chesnut street. She returned home yesterday.

—Mr. Ezekiel Skipper, of Brunswick county, was in the city yesterday. He reports much damage to crops in his section by the rains and floods, but says otherwise the county is in good shape.

—Mrs. L. M. Covington, has returned to her home on Fifth street after spending the Summer in the western part of the State. Her many friends will be pleased to learn of her return.

—Dr. Russell Bellamy returned to the city yesterday from Washington, where he has been in attendance at the opening session of the International Congress on Tuberculosis. He speaks in enthusiastic terms of the work accomplished at that great gathering.

—The Newbern Journal of the 30th says: "Rev. T. A. Smoot, of Grace Street Church, Wilmington, delivered a fine lecture before a large audience last night. After the lecture there was a social gathering in the basement, at which the Italian orchestra played some beautiful music. Light refreshments were served."

—Repesentative Donald MacRackan, of Whiteville; E. M. Koonce, Esq., of Onslow, Mayor M. C. Guthrie, of Southport, and Terry A. Lyon, Esq., chairman of the Democratic County Executive Committee of Bladen, were among the prominent visitors in the city for the speech of Hon. W. W. Kitachin at the Court House Wednesday evening.

MRS HERBERT LUTTERLOH.

Pased Away in Fayetteville Wednesday Night—Interment to be Here.

Yesterday afternoon's Fayetteville Observer has the following announcement of the death of Mrs. Herbert Lutterloh, the news of which will come with infinite sorrow to many Wilmington friends:

"Mrs. Herbert Lutterloh died last night at 11:30 o'clock as the result of an unavoidable internal hemorrhage.

The announcement of Mrs. Lutterloh's death this morning was a great shock to this community, for though she had been ill for several days she was not thought to be dangerously so.

Mrs. Lutterloh is survived by her husband and three children, Herbert Ralph B. and Joseph McRee Lutterloh.

She was a charming woman, in the bloom of life, generous and charitable. She had the faculty of winning and holding friends. To these her death is sorely felt. Today would have been her 31st birthday.

The funeral will take place from the residence on Haymount at 3:45 o'clock tomorrow afternon, and the remains taken to Wilmington, the former home of the deceased, for burial.

The following tribute is by a distinguished friend of the family:

Died at 11:30 o'clock, Sept, 30, 1908, aged just 31 years, Anna Cameron Lutterloh, born McRee, leaving her surviving: Herbert Lutterloh her husband and three children, Herbert McRee, Ralph McRee, widow of Joseph McRee, with numerous collateral kindred, of North Carolina's best.

Mrs. Lutterloh died with unavoidable internal hemorrhage, one of the ills flesh is heir to, which the highest medical skill could not lessen or remove.

This young wife and mother had the gift of winning and wearing friends of our purest and best women and had the respect and esteem of all.

The shock is too sudden, the grief too great, to write at this time a proper notice of this woman loved and lost.

She Likes Good Things.

Mrs. Chas. E. Smith of West Franklin Maine, says: "I like good things and have adopted Dr. King's New Life Pills as our family laxative medicine, because they are good and do their work without making a fuss about it." These painless purifiers sold at R. R. Bellamy's drug store. 25c.

LOCAL DOTS.

—At the session of the police court yesterday Weston Price, for vagrancy, was sent to the county farm for 30 days, and Isaac Dowd, white, for disorderly conduct, was sentenced to thirty days at the farm.

—A guessing party given by Class No. 6, of the Sunday School of Fifth Street Methodist church, bids fair to be a happy event this afternon at the church parsonage between the hours of 3 and 6 o'clock. The proceeds will go to the orphanage fund.

—By deed filed for record yesterday W. J. Moore and wife transferred to J. S. Funchess, for $100 and other considerations, property on east side of Water, 44 feet north of Princess street, 22x91 feet in size, together with the perpetual use of an alley in the rear of the lot.

—Wilmington friends will be interested in the following recent United States Army order: "Captain Edward J. Timberlake, Jr., Coast Artillery Corps, will proceed on October 7th to Hot Springs, Ark., and report to the commanding officer of the General Hospital for treatment."

—On account of the court sessions the meeting of the Wilmington Truck Growers' Association on Saturday will be at the office of Mr. F. W. Holden, No. 508 Southern Building, instead of in the Court House as previously noted. It is hoped to have a large attendance of growers from all this section of the county.

RULES OF REGISTRATION.

Registration Records For the General Election Are Now Open.

The registration books for the general election were opened October 1st at 9 o'clock and will remain open until October 24th, just twenty days, excluding Sundays. In response to an inquiry sent him by State Secretary Alex J. Reid, Assistant Attorney General Hayden Clement has made the following ruling on this matter:

"Replying to your favor requesting an opinion as to when the registration books should be opened and closed for the general election to be held in November, I beg to state that under and by virtue of the revisal, section 4293, the general election will be held on Tuesday, the 3rd day of November, 1908. Now section 4223 of the revisal provides: 'That the registration books shall be closed for regristration at sunset on the second Saturday before the election.' The second Saturday before November 3rd is October 24th. Therefore, the registration books should close at sunset on Saturday, October 24th. Section 4323 of the revisal further provides that the books shall be kept open between the hours of 9 o'clock A. M. and sunset on each day. Sundays excepted, for twenty days preceding the day for closing the registration books. Counting then twenty days from Saturday, October 24th, 1908 excluding Sundays, would make the time for opening the regristration boks the first day of October, 1908, at 9 o'clock A. M., making in all twenty-one days for the registration books to be opened."

FRENCH MILLINERY PARLORS.

Pretty and Stylish Hats, Frills and Furbelows at Attractive Place.

So many pretty hats, so many dainty frills and furbelows, so many exclusive shapes and styles, no wonedr that the ladies of the city thronged the French Millinery Parlors of Misses Northam and Andrews, upstairs at the favorite dry goods establishment of Capt. A. D. Brown, on Front street, yesterday. The parlors are reached by a quick elevator service and the ladies came yesterday in numbers. All were charmed with the display and showed their appreciation of the up-to-date styles and shapes by leaving many orders and signifying their purpose to tell their friends about the pretty little fairyland which they have discovered.

The season's styles are unquestionably attractive and some of the favorites at the French parlors were "The Talk of New York," "The Charlotte Corday," "The Polk Effects," the Continentials, the Directoire and the mush rooms, all of which are shown in endless variety. It would be difficult to find in the stock a single article not exceptionally stylish and pretty. The display may not be the largest in the city, it may not embrace everything known to art but the claim of the proprietors to exclusiveness and selection seems to be well founded. The opening will continue today and all the ladies of the city are most cordially invited.

INTEREST IS GROWING

Dr. Pickard Being Heard by Large Crowds at First Baptist Church.

Interest continues to grow in the series of revival services being conducted at the First Baptist Church by Rev. Dr. Pickard, of Savannah, Ga. At both the services yesterday afternoon and again last night large congregations greeted the gifted preacher and at the latter service there were three accessions to the church membership. Dr. Pickard gets at the hearts of men in his unique way and holds them to a sense of the responsibility of living. All who have heard him are charmed with his splendid exposition of Bible truth. The meetings will continue all through this week and again next week and the Christian people of the entire city are asked to join in the spirit of the services to the end that there may be a great religious awakening in the community. Services are held each afternoon at 3:30 o'clock and at 8 o'clock at night.

Canvassed Bond Issue Returns.

The returns from the late bond election in the county were officially canvassed and the result declared last night as has been previously given in these columns. The canvassing board was to have met yesterday at noon but on account of the absence of Mr. John Taylor, the member from Federal Point who had to be sent after, the board did not meet until last evening. Notice of the result of the election was posted at the Court House door as required by law.

The Theatre

The announcement of the appearance of the well known and celebrated Victor's Venetian Band, which will be the attraction at the Academy of Music on the evening of Wednesday, October 7th., has been received with genuine pleasure by the hundreds of lovers of good music in this city, and the prospects are that the playhouse will be packed on that occasion.

Victor and band have a repertoire of four hundred and fifteen classical and popular selections, from which are chosen admirable and delightful programmes for each appearance.

The attraction is one of four which have been arranged for the benefit of the childrens playground movement in this city and it should appeal on this ground as well as on its own merit to the interest and support of the community. Seats will soon be placed on sale at Plummer's.

PORT STATISTICS.

Receipts of Cotton and Naval Stores —Harbor Master's Report.

Notwithstanding the light receipts of cotton at the port of Wilmington from interior points during the first days of the month, largely due to the more or less paralyzation of railroad traffic by the floods, the receipts of the staple for the month just ended, the first of the new crop year, according to the stock report posted yesterday at the Chamber of Commerce, show an increase of 1,209 bales over the same month last year, which was a record-breaker.

While the receipts were very light during the first of the month, during the past week or ten days from 3,000 to 7,000 bales per day have come into sight the largest number of bales for one day having been Sept. 29th, when a high record was established with 7,504 bales. The price of the staple has averaged about nine cents for middling during the month and this has not been conducive to large receipts.

The total foreign exports for the month were 46,925 bales against only 36,277 same month last season, the receipts for the month having been 63,654 bales against 62,445 bales during September last season. On October 1st this year there were 9,699 bales ashore and 8,981 bales afloat, while last year on the same date there were 11,854 ashore and 14,274 bales afloat.

The receipts of naval stores for the month show a falling off in all items, the figures being as follows: Spirits 995 casks, rosin 5,861 barrels, tar 1,159 barrels, crude 1,137 barrels. Same month last year: Spirits 1,497 casks, rosin 8,238 barrels, tar 3,607 barrels, crude turpentine 1,404 barrels.

The receipts of naval stores for the crop year show a falling off in all items except rosin in which there is a gain.

The monthly report of Capt. Edgar D. Williams, harbor master at the port, shows arrivals of 20 vessels during the month, their aggregate tonnage being 29,310. Of this number of vessels 8 were American steamers, and four schooners, of 11,503 tons, while the foreign shipping consisted of eight steamers of 17,907 tons.

GODWIN AND SLOCOMB.

Preliminaries of Joint Debate Between Congressional Candidates Arranged.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Fayetteville, N. C., Oct. 1.—Hon. H. L. Godwin, Congressman from the Sixth District, and candidate for re-election arrived here this afternoon from Dunn to confer with A. H. Slocomb, Republican candidate for the same office whose challenge for a joint discussion he accepted yesterday and arranged for the preliminaries for a canvass with Mr. Slocomb.

The dates arranged are as follows: Supply, October 14th; Southport, October 14th (at night); Wilmington, October 15th (at night); Whiteville, October 16th; Boardman October 16th (at night); Pembroke, October 19th (at night); Elizabethtown, October 20th (at night); Clarkton, October 21st; Lumberton, October 21st (at night); Red Springs, October 22nd Parkton, Oct. 22nd (at night) Angier, October 26th; Duke, Oct. 26th (at night); Coats, October 27th; Dunn, October 27th (at night); Hope Mills, October 28th (at night); Fayetteville, October 29th; Pierce's Mill, October 29th (at night); Cedar Creek, October 30th.

CHARGED, FALSE PRETENSE

A. B. Kinna, White Man, Locked Up at Police Station Yesterday.

A. B. Kinna, a middle-aged white man claiming Philadelphia as his home and employed in Wilmington for a short time as an insurance solicitor, was arrested yesterday evening at Front and Red Cross streets by Policeman T. M. Hall, charged with false pretense in securing a suit of clothes, a hat and a small amount of money on a check presented night before last to S. Albelowitz, a merchant at Fourth and Bladen streets. The check was ostensibly drawn by Mr. J. W. Grady on the Murchison National Bank but Mr. Grady denies having issued the check and the police are now investigating a possible charge of forgery that may grow out of the matter. Kinna was unable to give $100 bond last night for his appearance today at noon before the Mayor.

MARRIED ON TRAIN.

North Carolina Couple Resort to Novel Ceremony in Palmetto State.

As Atlantic Coast Line passenger train No. 55 was rolling its way southward yesterday afternoon after leaving Wilmington at 3 o'clock, those who happened to be seated in the first-class coach were the interested witnesses of a novel wedding ceremony, performed just after the train passed over into South Carolina, in which State there are few barriers to connubial bliss. The story was told by passengers who came in on the late train this morning from Florence. The groom was a young man named Casteen, who is said to be a resident of Rose Hill and the bride a young lady of Chinquepin, Duplin county. The ceremony, it is reported, was performed in the car as the train rolled on, by Mr. F. L. Willcox, of the law firm of Willcox & Willcox, Florence, S. C., who seems to have been authorized to perform such ceremonies under the South Carolina law. The couple left the train at Nichols, S. C., and they were expected on the return last night, but for some reason they remained over the line, returning today.

Aged Colored Citizen Dead.

The funeral will be conducted from St. Stephen's A. M. E. Church this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock and the interment will be in Pine Forest cemetery. He is survived by a wife, two sons and one daughter.

THE BROWNSVILLE AFFAIR

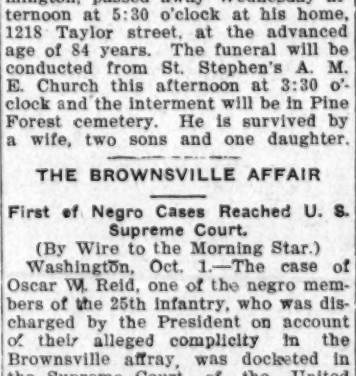

First of Negro Cases Reached U. S. Supreme Court.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, Oct. 1.—The case of Oscar W. Reid, one of the negro members of the 25th infantry, who was discharged by the President on account of their alleged complicity in the Brownsville affray, was docketed in the Supreme Court of the United States today. Reid brought suit in the District Court for the Southern District of New York to compel the payment to him of his salary from the date of his discharge until the termination of his enlistment, alleging as a basis for his suit that the government was under contract with him for the entire term of his enlistment. The decision in this court was rendered by Judge Hough and was adverse to Reid, it being held that the contract, if any, was subject to termination at the will of the government, and Judge Hough declared that the President was "proper authority" for the expression of that will. The case probably will be heard at an early day in the approaching term of the Supreme Court.

Opening Days at GAYLORD'S STORE

Thursday and Friday, Oct. First and Second.

COME!

Fall Opening at Gaylord's Big Department Store on Front street on Thursday and Friday, October 1st and 2nd. Everybody is invited and you are every one expected to come. The young ladies in the Millinery Deuartment have been working for a month to get ready for this display of beautiful millinery. Our pattern hats have been selected with great care, and we have them all styles, the big ones, little ones and medium size and aplenty to go around This wonderful Department grows stronger each season, and our floor space is much enlarged from last season, and we feel that if you will come you will be well paid for your trouble, you will not be expected to buy unless you want to. You can give the order and have the hat fixed up for you, and sent up just as you wish. Remember we trim hats free and it is well understood that we have the best trimmers in the city from our point of view. The Tailor Made Suit Department has just been completed with a beautiful assortment of new and pretty goods. The suits that we sell are right, they are not left-over from last season, but new styles up to now, and we have all prices. A real pretty suit for $10.00 and $12.50, suit for $16.00, $18.00, $20.00 and $27.00. The suit business is new to us, but to sell suits is a pleasure and we will sell you yours if prices have any effect. We ask your inspection of our cloaks which are on display with the coat suits. We have quite an assortment in this line in everything and every color. We have the pony jacket made of the real pony skin, also the imitation made of silk plush. We have the silk rubber coats for automobile and street wear. In our dress coats, sufficient in number and perfect in style from $3.98 each, full length and fully trimmed up to $25.00 each.

When you visit the Oppening notice our Dress Goods Department, silks and trimmings. We will try and have the store nicely decorated. Take a look at the windows as you come in, and you will think we lead, if you look through the store you will be sure of it. The prices have not gone up on anything, the hard times have brought them down. Remember the opening days and be sure and come. Elevator boy to take you to the second floor.

We will have music both days and everybody will be made welcome. The hats will be marked in plain figures, and if there is nothing trimmed to suit you we will soon have one trimmed to suit just the style you want.

Now Is the Time to Advertise in The Star.

CHANLER IS NOTIFIED

Democrat's Choice for Governor in New York State Officially Informed—Alton B. Parker Made Notification Speech.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Oct. 1.—Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler was today officially notified at his home in Barrytown of his nomination for Governor by the Democratic State convention. The speech of notification was by Alton B. Parker, Democratic Presidential nominee in 1904. Mr. Chanler in his speech of acceptance said "that the people cannot rule, in Nation, or in State, so long as the power and the patronage of the presidency are successfully exerted to control the deliberations of State and National conventions and to dictate who shall be selected for the presidency and the governorship."

The Lieutenant Governor further said:

"We have had too much excitement and hysteria; let us right wrongs and reform abuses calmly and without unnecessary noise. It is not necessary to begin a reformation by creating a panic; reforms intelligently instituted should result in a firmer tone in business and in greater public confidence in existing conditions.

"There are many ways of doing the same thing, and in recommending any business recommendations the vast army of workers whose employment is their means of livlihood, must be thought of as well as the men at the head."

In an indirect allusion to the controversy over the race track gambling question Mr. Chanler said:

"I am a great believer in not unnecessarily interfering with the personal habits, customs and pastimes of the people; I favor all healthful recreations which tend to develop and strengthen the body or to rest the minds of our hard working citizens; and I declaring that the line of reasonable and necessary regulation having been reached or even exceeded, the more we endeavor to restrict personal liberty the less likely shall we be to promote in any effective, permanent way, the public morals."

TWO KILLED AT SPENCER.

Powder Storage House Exploded—Score Injured—Buildings Damaged.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Spencer, N. C., Oct. 1.—Two lives were lost and twenty or more persons were injured in Spencer tonight by the explosion of a powder storage house on the yards of the Southern Railway Company and most of the buildings nearby were damaged by the shock which followed.

The dead are:

C. H. Layton, aged 48, of Raleigh.

George Gould, aged 30, of Spencer.

It is feared that other bodies are in the ruins.

Fire was discovered in the storage of the powder house and the Spencer shop fire department rushed to the scene. C. H. Layton and W. F. Stafford were holding the fire hose when the explosion occurred and were buried under the debris. With great difficulty their bodies were pulled out of the burning ruins after the scene was reached by fellow workmen. The fire consumed twenty or more cars and other material. It is said that the powder magazine contained a half carload of powder, dynamite and other explosives.

Every building in Spencer and for many miles around were badly shaken up and damaged. Of the Southern's buildings the blacksmith shop is the most seriously damaged. The large new machine shop, two hundred by six hundred feet was also badly damaged, all windows being torn out and a number of columns torn down.

CHARGED WITH SMUGGLING

Philadelphia Saloon Keeper In League With Barber on Liner.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Philadelphia, Oct. 1.—Charles Moulton, a saloon keeper in the Southern section of the city, was arrested today by Custom Officers charged with conspiring with William A. Parker, barber on the British steamer Merion, to smuggle goods into this country. Parker was arrested on a charge of smuggling cloth into port when the steamer Merion arrived here on Monday. He said he submitted samples of cloth to Moulton before bringing it here from Liverpool. Moulton admitted the cloth had been left at his place and was held for trial.

The authorities say that their investigation of smuggling charges involve a number of steamship employes in the importation of laces. A Queenstown Lace manufacturer, a Liverpool cloth merchant and a Boston woman are among those whom the Federal authorities will question in their effort to siff the charges made.

DISOBEYS ORDER OF COURT

Sheriff Refused to Bring Harry Thaw To Pittsburg.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

White Plains, N. Y., Oct. 1.—A writ of habeas corpus signed by W. H. Archibald, judge of the District Court of the United States for the Western District of Pennsylvania and commanding Sheriff of West Chester to forthwith produce the body of Harry K. Thaw in Pittsburg. After reading the writ Sheriff Lane formally notified the deputy that he would refuse to obey the order and would not take Thaw to Pittsburg. In explanation of his refusal to comply with the order of Judge Archibald, Sheriff Lane said he was acting on advice of counsel, who had advised him that he cannot let Thaw out of the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court of this State. The writ specifies that the presence of Thaw is demanded in the Pittsburg court so that he may testify in the bankruptcy proceedings now pending in that court.

PRESIDENT AND HITCHCOCK

Roosevelt Summons the National Chairman to Washington—Will Hold Conference Regarding Management of Campaign.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, Oct. 1.—Chairman Hitchcock, of the Republican National Committee, is expected in Washington tomorrow and the general understanding here is that he will call upon the President for the purpose of exchanging views with him regarding the conduct of the campaign in behalf of Judge Taft.

It was reported here today that the President had summoned Mr. Hitchcock for the purpose of requesting from him an explanation of many criticisms which have recently come to the White House concerning the management of affairs both in New York and Chicago, but Secretary Loeb tonight denied the portion of the report which attributed Mr. Hitchcock's coming to a special request from the President. There is, however excellent authority for the general statement that a number of complaints as to the management of the campaign have reached the executive mansion, and the understanding is that President Roosevelt will welcome the opportunity to talk with Mr. Hitchcock.

So far as divulged, the censure seems to point to the fact that the National committee has this year failed to co-operate as completely and zealously with the Congressional committee as in past years, and it is understood that some of the criticisms have come from Republican candidates for Congress. On the other hand, it has been explained to the President that the National chairman has been very busily engaged in arranging the details of the National campaign, and has been inclined to give the major portion of his attention to that subject rather than to the election of members of Congress, because he regarded that as his especial work, while he was confident that the Congressional committee would be abundantly able to look after the interest of Congressional candidates.

Reports of discourteous conduct at the National committee headquarters toward Republicans of prominance have also reached the President.

FLEET NEAR MANILA

Will Arrive Today—Governor Smith Will Visit Admiral Sperry.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Manila, Oct. 2.—The Atlantic fleet was reported fifty miles off the mouth of harbor at 8 o'clock this morning, and is expected to pass in by Corregidor island about 1:30 this afternoon. Launches have already gone out to meet the fleet down the coast and accompany it into the harbor.

There will be no formalities in the way of reception outside of the demonstrations of the steamers and harbor craft which sail about the fleet as it lies at anchor. Tonight the ships will be illuminated.

Governor General Smith will pay an official call to Admiral Sperry after the great water parade of tomorrow is over

(By Cable to the Morning Star.)

Manilla, October 1.—Governor General Smith has issued the following welcome to the fleet:

"We have looked forward for many months to the time when we might bid glad welcome to the officers and men of the American battleships, but this pleasure has been postponed in the hour of its realization, and it is a sad disappointment to us all that flying flags and the wave of distant hands must signall the hearty welcome which our eyes and lips would gladly speak.

"The actual handclasp and words of greeting must be deferred a little while, but when the times comes they will be none the less warm for a little waiting.

"The outward manifestations of our welcome may be less magnificient that than other lands, but in warmth and sincerity our welcome will yield to none."

MASSACHUSETTS CONVENTION

Democrats Hold Harmonious Session and Nominate Full Ticket.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Boston, Mass., Oct. 1.—With scarcely a jar in its proceedings, the Democratic State Convention today nominated a State ticket for the November election, chose 16 presidential elector and adopted a set of resolutions, the main planks of which advocate tariff, labor and state administration reforms.

James H. Vahey, of Watertown, was nominated for Governor and Charles J. Barton, Melrose for lieutenant governor.

Senator Vahey had as an opponent the labor leader E. Gerry Brown of Brockton, who withdrew and asked that the nomination of his opponent be made unanimous. This action immediately followed. Candidate Vahey accepted the nomination with a fervent plea for united action by the party followers

John Golden of Fall River, President of the United Textitle Workers of America, declined the nomination for Lieutenant Governor but pledged the support of organized labor to the ticket.

Rev. Arthur Selden Lloyd for past twelve years general secretary of the Protestant Episcopal board of Foreign and Domestic Missions with offices in New York, was yesterday elected coadjutor bishop of the diocese of Maryland. The election carries with it the right of succession to Bishop William Paret, the Incumbent. Mr. Lloyd was born in Virginia about fifty years ago and received his education at the University of Virginia and the theological seminary of Virginia, located near Alexandria.

A logging train at Scappos, Oregon, yesterday ran away on a grade, jumped the track and killed five men and injured eight.

WARM WIRELETS.

Word has been received at Washington of the death yesterday at Atlantic City of Brigadier General J. E. Summers, of the Army Medical Corps. He was appointed to the army from Virginia.

Mrs. William E. Annis, whose husband was shot by Captain Peter C. Hains, Jr., at the Bayside Yacht Club last August, spent an hour yesterday at the office of District Attorney Darrin at Long Island with reference to evidence to be presented to the grand jury today preparatory to the indictment of Hains.

Dr. Alexander Mall, of Plymouth Episcopal church, Boston, Mass., was last night elected bishop of the Protestant Diocese of Washington on the seventr ballot. Bishop Brent, of the Philippines had twice declined the honor after being elected. The vacancy was caused by the death of Bishop Henry Y. Satterlee.

The old cruiser Atlanta, one of the pioneer ships of the present United States navy, now used as a barracks for the men of the reserve torpedo boat flotilla at the navy yard Norfolk, Va., and such other vessels of that flotilla as are in condition for service, will be transferred as soon as possible from the old reserve base at Norfolk to the new one at the navy yard Charleston, S. C.

Albert J. Beveridge, of Indiana, last night was cordially acclaimed at a great political demonstration by several hundred townsmen and farmers at Valey City, N. D., on his arrival from the East and during an address in the auditorium on the tariff. On the way to Valley City, Senator Beveridge this afternoon addressed a large crowd at Fargo from the rear platform of the North Coast limited. He pleaded with his auditors to make their party their servant instead of becoming the servant of the party.

BANKERS CONVENTION ENDS.

Live Discussion Yesterday Over Opposition to Guarantee Deposits.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Denver, Col., Oct. 1.—The annual convention of the American Bankers' Association came to an end this afternoon with the election of George M. Reynolds, of Chicago, as president and Lewis E. Pierson as first vice president. Thirty eight new members were announced and a vice president representing each state having representatives in the association was named.

The convention placed itself squarely on record as against both guarantee of bank deposits and postal savings banks. A lively discussion occurred over the report of the Federal Legislative committee opposing both the guarantee bank deposits and the sum of postal savings banks. The resolution offered by the committee contained a condemnation of the guarantee law only, making no mention of the postal savings banks.

A contest led by Clifton R. Breckenridge, of Arkansas, was made to include condemnation of postal savings banks in the same resolutions. Former Governor Myron T. Herrick, of Ohio, led the opposition. After a parliamentary tangle the Breckenridge substitute was voted down.

OUTLOOK IN MICHIGAN

Kern Thinks it Safe For Democracy In Alabama Today.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 1.—John W. Kern Democratic Vice Presidential nominee passed through this city tonight on the way to Birmingham, Ala., where he will speak at two meetings tomorrow. He will address members of the Business Men's Club during the noon hour and will speak at a rally in the afternoon.

Speaking of the outlook in Michigan, through which State he has been travelling during the last two days, Mr. Kern said:

"It looks to me as though the Democrats were reasonably sure of electing the State ticket, and they have a grand fighting chance to carry the State for Bryan."

Mr. Kern left Saginaw before day break and came through to Cincinnati without a speech along the way. His itinerary now provides for a stay in Atlanta, Ga., from 11 A. M., until 4 P. M. on Saturday, which was not included in his original plans. He will speak in Macon, Ga., Saturday night.

CRUSH IN PITTSBURG.

Over Score of Men, Women and Children Crushed in Parade.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 1.—Over a score of men, women and children were painfully injured during the great historical and industrial pageant today in celebration of Pittsburg's sesqui centennial anniversary. It is estimated that over 300,000 lined the route of the parade and at times the crush was so great that many persons were thrown to the ground and severely trampled before rescued by the police.

Tonight the streets of the city were crowded from building to building with gay masqueraders. Street car service in the downtown section was entirely suspended.

The distinguished guests of the city, included Vice President Fairbanks, Governor Stuart, of Pennsylvania; ex-Governors Pennypacker and Slone and Lieutenant Governor Murphy, all of Pennsylvania; Lieutenant General Young, retired, Major Guthrie, Judges, congressmen, legislators and the business men of Pittsburg were entertained by the chamber of commerce at a reception.

COL. DILLINGHAM'S ENTERTAINMENT

Again Draws a Large Audience To Fourth and Castle Streets.

PROGRAMME WELL RECEIVED

Col Dillingham Did Not Speak, But Address of Unusual Interest Was Delivered by Mr. Alva A. Mills.

If the crowd that attended the free minstrel performance and band concert given by Col. Frank A. Dillingham's entertainers last night at the corner of Fourth and Castle streets can be taken as an indication of the attitude of the people of this city towards Col. Dillingham, this distinguished visitor will find little trouble in carrying out his announced plan of making a friend of every man and woman in Wilmington. The public has shown that it will do its part in becoming acquainted with Col. Dillingham by a liberal attendance at his entetainments which are received with marked evidence of approval.

Col. Dillingham was present throughout the evening, but did not speak and Mr. Alva A. Mills, his able associate, who was again in charge of the performance last night and delivered a lecture on health and the treatment of disease with Nature's own remedies that deeply impressed his audience. In the fifteen years of his association with Col. Dillingham Mr. Mills has acquired a vast fund of information on these subjects, and, being a platform speaker of unusual force and ability, his brief address was highly appreciated by his hearers. He told the crowd of the great medicinal power of the Plant Juice remedies; of the different diseases that it would cure, and those that it would not cure, impressing upon his hearers the fact that Plant Juice would not cure all disease, but that it had proved its ability to cure certain diseases by thousands of cases that are matters of record in Col. Dillingham's Cincinnati office.

When an invitation was extended to those in the audience who suffered from disease of a nature that could be treated by local applications, several persons responded, and in many instances the relief afforded was of such a pronounced nature as to be readily apparent to the audience, which appeared to appreciate the removal of the affliction as much as the sufferer himself.

The performance given by Col. Dillingham's Plant Juice entertainers is by far the best entertainment of this character every presented in this city. His comedians are trained in their work by years of experience and the show is equal in every respect to many paid attractions that visit this section. The performance will be repeated each evening at the corner of Fourth and Castle streets. A large stage has been erected on grounds of ample size and easily accessible by car line.

TAFT IS CONFIDENT

Judging From Effects of His Speeches He Says He Will Be Elected.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 1.—"I am going to be elected." This statement made tonight by William H. Taft sums up in a word what the candidate thinks of the effects of his speech making tour this far. The belief is based, Mr. Taft explained on the manner of his reception in states thus far traversed in which there were reported to be defections among the Republican ranks. As to the National ticket, Mr. Taft now believes that there is no reason to doubt but that the Republican party will hold its own, and should this prove the case, Mr. Taft says there is no doubt that he will get the electorial vote of Wisconsin, Minnesota, The Dakotas, Iowa and Nebraska—the States as to which the disaffection was supposed to exist.

Thirteen speeches were made by the candidate today in a swing around the southeastern part of Nebraska and terminating at Omaha tonight, where two big meetings, one for the benefit of the stock yards employes in South Omaha, the other in the auditorium were held. Throughout the day the crowds were larger than usual at the short stops.

DR. KOCH TO SCIENTISTS.

Most Important Feature of Crusade Against Tuberculosis is Education.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, Oct. 1.—"Of more importance than any other feature of the crusade against the scourge of the white plague is the campaign of education."

This emphatic declaration was made by Robert Koch, the eminent German scientist, who today again, figured prominently in a controversial discussion of tuberculosis before the International Congress On Tuberculosis. This utterance was made just after a report had been reported by Dr. G. A. Heron, delegate of the Royal Society of Medicine of London on "Teaching of Elementary Hygeine in the Training Colleges and Elementary Schools of Great Britain and Ireland," and which was read and discussed by the section of the Congress on "Elementary and popular education."

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Congressman Chas. R. Thomas —Sampson Democrat: Congressman Charles R. Thomas speaks in Clinton on October 28th. And Hon. Rodolph Duffy at Roseboro the 16th and at Garland on the 17th.

—Washington, Sept. 20.—The Postoffice Department today accepted the proposal of Eli A. Lackey for postoffice quarters in Hamlet, N. C. The lease will run 10 years from July 1 next.

—"The first frost made its appearance in Surry Wednesday morning but it was very light and did no damage. The farmers have their tobacco about all cut and housed, and lots of it is being shipped every day to Winston."

—Raleigh News and Observer: "Major William A. Graham, Commissioner of Agriculture, left yesterday for Laurinburg to speak there today, and he has an appointment at Mount Pleasant for Monday. Major Graham will be constantly in the campaign from this time until the election."

—Sampson Democrat: "The Hon. John T. Elington, Democratic nominee for the State Senate will speak on Monday, October 5th. He is a well posted man, one of the most prominent and popular men of Johnson county, having been sheriff for about 20 years in all, and is a good speaker.

—Raleigh News and Observer: "The State Historical Commission has devoted one volume of its first publication. "The Literary and Historical Activities of North Carolina," covering the past five years, to every rural library in the State. There are 1,925 of these libraries in North Carolina.

—Fayetteville Observer: "Hon. J. Bryan Grimes, Secretary of State, spoke at Hope Mills last night to a good crowd in the Masonic Hall. The speaker was introduced by County Chairman C. G. Rose, and spoke for about an hour, dividing his time equally between State and National Issues. His speech made a fine impression and he was frequently applauded."

—Statesville Mascot, 29th: "News reached this city last night that scarlet fever has broken out at Barium Orphans' Home. A telephone message received at noon today, however, stated that the authorities of the institution have the disease well in hand and that there is no danger of its spreading. Every precaution against this has been taken."

—"A Bryan- Kitchin Club was formed at Tarboro Monday night with one hundred members. Frank Powell was made permanent chairman and County Superintendent R. G. Kittrell, secretary. The club will arrange to have a prominent speaker next week, when other officers will be named. The spirit of Democracy is in full sway and Edgecombe will roll up a large majority for the cause.

—Fairmont Messenger: "The tobacco season for this year is drawing to a close at our Fairmont market. There have been a half million more pounds sold on this market this year than last, and we still wait to hear from the first dissatisfied tobacco grower. And next year we will have another warehous and a steamery. Fairmont is just beginning to grow."

—Fayetteville Observer: "Complaint has been filed with Clerk of Court A. A. McKethan, by Sinclair & Dye, attorneys for the plaintiff in a suit entitled "L. M. Andrews vs. J. Elwood Cox," in which the plaintiff alleges that he entered into contract with the defendant to manufacture and sell him a certain number of shuttle blocks according to certain specifications; that he has complied with the terms of the contract in every particular, and that the defendant has violated the terms of the contract.

—All Democratic clubs that have been organized in North Carolina during the present campaign and those that shall yet be organized are called upon to send their names, together with the names and addresses of their officers to John W. Tomlinson, chairman committee on organization, Chicago, Ill. This will, upon the authority of Chairman Tomlinson, insure each club receiving from Democratic national headquarters literature, badges, buttons and weekly letters from Mr. Bryan during the month of October."

—"Six Guilford College students have been arrested on a warrant charging assault and battery on the person of Rodney Turner, a student, 17 years old, the son of Hon. C. L. Turner, of Catawba county, who is a brother to ex-Lieut. Gov. W. D. Turner of Statesville. Acting under instructions from his father, who accompanied him to Greensboro and employed ex-Judge Strudwick to prosecute the cases, young Turner swore out warrants against the following fellow students: Sam Campbell, of West Virginia; Geo. Nichols, of Mt. Airy; Lowry Stafford and Lon Coble, of Greensboro; Baxter Sellars, of Mebane, and John C. Whitaker, of Winston."

—Fayetteville Observer: Dr. W. H. McKinnon died in this city last night as the result of Bright's disease. Dr. McKinnon was very popular in this county and in Robeson, where he practiced medicine with marked ability. He was born in this city sixty-five years ago and was a son of the late Murdock McKinnon and Narcissus McDonald McKinnon. He leaves two sisters, Miss Matt McKinnon, who resides at the old McKinnon home on Russell street, and Mrs. Sudie Wade, of Durham. Dr. McKinnon married Miss Ella McNeill, daughter of the late Sheriff Hector McNeill, who survives him, with the following children: Miss Mary McKinnon, the well known musician, now of Hot Springs, Ark.; Mrs. Cunningham; Mrs. J. C. McPhail, and Messrs. Murdock and W. H. McKinnon, Jr., of Red Springs. The remains will be taken to Red Springs this afternoon for burial accompanied by Mrs. McKinnon, Miss Mary McKinnon, Mrs. Ann McGeachy and Mr. Hector McGeachy.

Pig Sty or Cotton Field?

Since Biblical times, the hog has had the reputation of being a very uncleanly animal. How then can hog fat, from which lard is made, be clean and wholesome, and make healthful, digestible food? It simply cannot, and does not.

Now let us consider the ingredients of Cottolene—just pure, refined cotton seed oil, and the choicest of beef suet. Do they not appeal to you as preferable to the fat of the swine?

Cottolene is an absolutely pure product, and will make palatable, digestible, wholesome food. Cottolene is the best frying and shortening medium made today. If the best is none too good for you, ask your grocer for Cottolene, and do not let any prejudice stand in the way. The only way to know Cottolene is to test it yourself.

COTTOLENE is Guaranteed Your grocer is hereby authorized to refund your money in case you are not pleased, after having given Cottolene a fair test.

Never Sold in Bulk Cottolene is packed in pails with an air-tight top to keep it clean, fresh and wholesome, and prevent it from catching dust and absorbing disagreeable odors, such as fish, oil, etc.

An Enviable Spirit

is that of the man watching another take a drink of our Liquor, and a "spirit to be envied" is that same Liquor. It is mild, delicate, delicious in flavor, yet has the right "smack" that afterwards gives the body a warm glow throughout. And it is the kind you will take pride in offering to a caller at the house—for he will appreciate it also. Try a sample and then hear our prices.

FORAKER WILLING TO BE PROSECUTED

Says The Law Should Be Invoked Against Him if he Has Committed Wrong.

THE SENATOR'S STATEMENT

He States That the Character of His Employment With Oil Trust is What Concerns the Public—No Apologies to Mr. Hearst.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 1.—That the law should be invoked against him if he has done any wrong is the conclusion of a statement given by United States Senator Foraker to the Associated Press today. Before making this suggestion he sums up the various charges that have been made and discusses briefly the legal ethics as to service for various clients. The statement in part follows:

"The questions in this whole matter in which the public is concerned are: "Whether I was employed, which was never concealed or denied and the character of that employment, whether it had any relation to my duties as Senator, or influenced me in any manner in regard thereto.

"On all these points I have answered fully in my former published statements.

"I have not until now spoken of the compensation I received, because, if the employment was improper it would be no defense to show that it was a small sum, but if on the other hand the employment was proper the compensation concerned only the company and myself, nobody else. If my former statements are true, as I know them to be, the employment was entirely proper and legitimate, and therefore the question of compensation is one I do not feel called upon to discuss with Mr. Hearst.

"In view, however, of the important character of the services rendered, the ability of the company to pay, and, if it may be considered, although unforseen the disagreeable experience to which I am subjected, I think it would be difficult for Mr. Hearst to show that I was overpaid, but if he should, that would be a matter for the company to complain about and not Mr. Hearst.

"My employment was confined to the affairs of the company in Ohio, including its reorganization after the decision of our Supreme Court dissolving the trust, and that it was ended long before the company had become in anyway the object of legislation by Congress or the subject of attacks of any kind in the courts or otherwise the United States Government, and that such employment has never been renewed, although, as heretofore shown again tendered and declined in 1906.

"If I did not have a right to accept that employment, I should probably be criticised for having been for years employed by the Ohio Traction Company; or perhaps I should be condemned for once representing the General Electric Company although that was before I was elected to the Senate or the Cincinnati Telephone Company, by which I was employed for many years before and for some time after I was elected to the Senate, because it is a branch of the Bell Telephone Company, and these companies—the General Electric and the Bell Telephone—have now been charged, according to the newspapers with a violating of the anti-trust laws, and are to be civilly and criminally proceeded against by the Attorney General of the United States.

"When I was employed by the Standard Oil Company there was no more knowledge or probability of that company's being legislated about by Congress or proceeded against in the Federal courts, so far as anybody was then aware than there was and has been as to the other companies named at the times when I respectively represented them.

"Lawyers at least, fully understood that when a professional service has been rendered and has been paid for all obligation are on both sides and no lawyer is bound by reason of a previous employment to show any favor at any subsequent time as attorney, as public official, or otherwise to any one who may have been his client.

"Finally if I committed any offense against the law let somebody specifically point it out and proceed against me. The courts are open and although they have been severely criticised yet the people have confidence in them and will accept and be satisfied with their judgments. If there be any just basis for this reckless, wholesale defamation and attempted assassination of character, let it take some tangible open and fair form of procedure where all interested can appear and be fully heard."

Fire in the coal bunkers of the Atlast Line steamer Siegmund, which arrived at Brooklyn last evening gave those on board an exciting night, September 5th. The vessel left Santos, Brazil, three days previously, with a cargo of 20,000 bags of coffee, and when two days out from Rio Janeiro, smoke began to pour up from below. Captain C. Poock and his crew of 35 men fought the smoulder throughout the night and by day break had the fire under control. The damage to the cargo was slight.

For Sore Feet.

"I have found Bucklen's Arnica Salve to be the proper thing to use for sore feet, as well as for healing burns, sores, cuts, and all manner of abrasions," writes Mr. W. Stone, of East Poland, Maine. It is the proper thing too for piles. Try it! Sold under guarantee at H. R. Bellamy's drug store. 25c.

SQUADS SEARCHING BAND OF OUTLAWS

Governor Swanson Ordered Citizens of Buckingham County to Assist.

CRISIS REACHED YESTERDAY

People in Outlying Districts Still Fear Harm at Hands of Desperadoes. Newspaper Men Warned to Leave Village.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Richmond, Va., Oct. 1.—Excitement in Arvonia is greatly allayed but in the outlying districts, where the houses are several miles distant from each other, the people are still in dread of visitations from the Zimmerman-Thomas gang of outlaws.

The crisis was reached late this afternoon, when Mr. Edmund W. Hubard, Commonwealth's attorney of Buckingham county, telegraphed to the justice of the peace in Arvonia to summon eighty men and to form them in squads of twenty to scour the country for the desperadoes. Mr. Hubard acted after consultation with Governor Swanson. It is supposed that the vigilance committee started tonight, though no direct information of their movements and plans of the authorities could be gained.

The latest report from the outlaw country is that Charles Newton, brother-in-law of Benjamin Zimmerman, supposed to be the leader of the gang, is dead from wounds inflicted by some one of the desperadoes. The report could not be confirmed owing to the inaccessability of the place where the shooting is said to have occurred, but it is generally believed that Newton has been killed. The murder if it occurred, is the result of an old grudge existing between the victim and his slayer.

Some time ago Zimmerman is alleged to have attempted criminal assault on Newton's wife, and after the warrant was sworn out for his arrest, to have threatened his brother-in-law. In consequence of the threats. Newton and his wife moved from the home of the band to a place called Paynes Station, near where the alleged shooting took place. It is reported that members of the gang have been sighted in the woods between the Slate and James rivers, but no one has gotten within ear shot of them. Though they are given to pillaging their neighbors, it is not thought that they will attempt further murder or assault, except against those with whom they have a feud. Some think that they have left the country; others, that they are still in hiding in their old haunts—in forests and along river banks which are practically inaccessible.

Affairs for newspaper men reached a climax this morning, when the first greeting they received was that they would be shot on sight and that it would be well for them to leave the village. The bearer of the message, a citizen of some prominence would not divulge the name of the sender.

He repeated the message several times, and the reporters took him at his word.

FELTON IS EXAMINED.

Government Suit to Dissolve Trust Resumed.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Chicago, Oct. 1.—Henry E. Felton, president of the Union Tank Line Co., and formerly general freight agent for the Chicago and Eastern Illinois Railroad Company occupied the stand all day today when the Government suit to dissolve the Standard Oil Company was resumed.

Prior to the enactment of the Inter-State Commerce law in 1887, Mr. Felton said that the railroads made a few tariffs. They underbid each other ruthlessly by means of rebates to secure large shipments or to retain as customers important shippers already on their lists. From time to time "gentlemens agreements" were entered into to maintain rates, but there was always some road which, tempted by a heavy shipment would violate it, and presently all the roads would be debating again.

Witness said that the petroleum shipped in 1904, 82 1-2 per cent. was the property of the Standard Oil Company. In 1899 he said the Union Tank Line operated 62 per cent. of all the tank cars in use, but in 1908 he said the proportion was only 51 per cent., indicating, he said, the growth of independent concerns.

IMITATING HIS CHIEF.

Judge Taft Starts an Annanias Club of His Own.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Table Rock, Neb., Oct. 1.—Judge William H. Taft used this language in his labor speech today:

"Now some ordinary, cheap, common, liar has devoted himself to the business of running around the country and saying that I am in favor of paying a laboring man a dollar a day and that I have said that that is enough.

I was at the head of the Panama canal for four years and we pay steam shovel men down there $250 a month. As I figure that out it makes a little more than one dollar a day. Anybody that says I ever made that remark is a liar and the man who believes him is a fool. Why under heaven, I should say that I cannot understand, or in what connection or under what circumstances."

BRYAN SEVERELY CRITICISES TAFT

Declares That Large Contributions are Secured to Mortgage Republican Officials

ADAPTS PRESIDENT'S IDEA

With Regard to Publicity of Campaign Contributions—Bryan Insists It Insult to Intelligence of Voters.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 1.—Declaring that every disinterested voter knows that large contributions have been issued to secure mortgages upon officials, William J. Bryan tonight issued at Fairview a statement criticising the adoption by William H. Taft his Republican opponent for President, of President Roosevelt's announced view on the subject of the publicity contributions.

"Following is the complete text of Mr. Bryan's statement:

"I am surprised to find that Mr. Taft indorses the President's views on the subject of publicity as to campaign contributions but since he holds these views, I am glad that he makes them known now. We now have publicity before the election as to his opinion even if he does not believe in publicity of contributions until after the election. He fails to see the difference between the publication of contributions before election and the publication of expenditure before election.

"The publication of expenditures is required to show whether corrupt methods have been employed in the election and as the expenditures continue up to the close of the polls, it would be impossible to make a complete publication until after the election. The publication of contributions ought to be before election; the main reason for the publication of contributions before election is to show the public the source from which the contributions come in order that the public may know which party predatory interests are supporting.

"Every disinterested voted knows that the large contributions have been used to secure mortgages upon officials. The publication of contributions throws a deal more light upon the influence at work in politics than publication of expenditure, for the publication of contributions shows to whom the party is indebted and to whom re-payment is likely to be made, while the publication of expenditures shows what has been paid out, and disbursements do not create obligations that effect the course of the administration.

"Mr. Taft says that 'the proper object of a publicity law is to prevent the use of money for bribery and other improper purposes in elections and to enable the law officers of the Government and the public to determine whether the contribution made were properly expended for legitimate purposes' And he adds 'the requirement that the names and amounts of per-contributing should also be shown is for the purpose of enabling the public and the prosecuting officers of the Government to judge whether subsequent official action has been improperly affected in favor of the contributed by the successful candidate.' This he says can all be accomplished by publication after the election. He then proceeds to endorse the position taken by the President, declaring that 'The chief objection to the publication of contributions before the election is that it makes certain that in the heat of the controversy the motive of those who contribute to pay the legitimate expenses of the campaign will be misconstrued, perverted and misrepresented.'

"'The candidate' also he insists, 'in whose behalf the contributions are made will be charged in the most unfair way as being completely under the control of those who make the contributions.'

"Here he makes the same charge that the President does, the astounding charge that the voters are so liable to be misled, that the knowledge must be kept from them. I insist that it is an insult to the intelligence of the voters, and it does little credit to Mr. Taft's opinion of the men to whom he is making his appeal. President Roosevelt Roosevelt may have made his statement thoughtlessly and on the impulse of the moment, but Mr. Taft brings the same indictment against the voters with deliberation, and after he has read a criticism of the President's views.

"It is fair to charge therefore, that Mr. Taft is either expecting to receive contributions which would arouse just suspicion among an intelligent people, or contributions which, if known, would arouse an unjust suspicion among a people too ignorant to form a correct judgment upon the facts. This is an evasion which he can neither retract nor excuse.

"His subsequent arguement that the Republican before election of the names and amounts contributed 'would discourage those who desire to contribute to the legitimate purpose of the campaign by exposing them to the bitter diatribes of unfair attacks or slanderous condemnation of partisans in an electoral fight,' ought to have little weight when it is considered that such publication will be efficious in discouraging those who now desire to contribute to illegitimate expenses.

After giving out the above statement, Mr. Bryan referred to Mr. Taft's statement that Thomas F. Ryan contributed $15,000 to the Nebraska campaign fund in 1904 and said:

"This has been denied, but I assume that he taken the statements of some of his Republican advisers without taking time to verify those statements. Mr. Ryan did not contribute any money to the Nebraska campaign fund. The national committee contributed $15,000 in 1904, and the members of the National committee who had charge of the fund have stated that the contribution was made from the general fund of the committee and was not contributed to the committee by any one for the purpose of being sent to Nebraska.

GOULD DIVORCE SUIT

Troubles of Some of the "Idle Rich" at Bridge Parties, Etc.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Oct. 1.—To permit counsel for Howard Gould an opportunity to submit affidivats of three disinterested persons who had "seen Mrs. Gould intoxicated," a hearing on Mrs. Gould's application for alimony at the rate of $120,000 a year, was adjourned by Justice Giegerich in the Supreme Court today.

The adjournment followed a spirited discussion between counsel, in the course of which Clarence J. Shearn, attorney for Mrs. Gould, declared the application for adjournment was merely jockeying for delay to "save Mr. Gould a few paltry dollars and to attempt to get on the records wicked and scandalous statements against Mrs. Gould in an attempt to further blacken her character.

At the conclusion of the arguments Justice Giegerich without comment granted the application for adjournment to October 13th, after he had learned that Mr. Gould had sent his wife a check for $2,000, her monthly allowance, yesterday. Mrs. Gould's suit is for a separation upon the ground of abandonment and cruelty. Mrs. Gould has received an allowance of $25,000 a year from her husband since they separated. During the course of his argument for an adjournment, Delacey Nicoll said it was set forth in Mr. Gould's answer that he was justified in abandoning his wife because of her frequent intoxication, which made life with her intolerable. Mr. Nicoll said that once when she was grossly intoxicated at a bridge party at the home of Mrs. George Kirkpatrick in this city, Mrs. Gould attempted to assault several of the women present and bit Mrs. Kirkpatrick's arm.

He said that on another occasion when Mr. and Mrs. Gould were in a box at a theatre Mrs. Gould wrongfully accused her husband of flirting with one of the actresses on the stage and of having winked at the actress. "We will prove," said Mr. Nicoll, "that not alone was Mr. Gould not intoxicated, as his wife asserts, not alone that he did not wink at or attempt to flirt with the actress, but that Mrs. Gould was so drunk that she had to be led from the theatre."

Mr. Shearn, replying, asserted that all these charges were false and were an outrage. He entered a vigorous protest against any adjournment.

After Mr. Nicoll had told the court that three witnesses from whom he desired to procure depositions had refused to make affidavits and that it would be necessary for him to ask for a court order to compel them to submit to an examination, the adjournment was granted.

N. C. PEACE CONGRESS.

President to Receive Party at Washington Tomorrow—Programme.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Oct. 1.—Announcement was made here tonight that a delegation from the North Carolina Peace Congress which is to take place in Greensboro, N. C., October 11-17, in connection with the centennial of that city, will be received by the President tomorrow.

At a recent interview with the President the organizers of this Congress explained to the President their intention of exerting their influence toward adequate armament as well as effective arbitration on the ground that both are agents of National Security and International Justice.

The President declared at that time, after hearing their plans: "The entire nation and the cause of peace and justice throughout the world benefit by this new departure in promoting the general peace movement."

This feature will be covered at the coming peace congress at Greensboro, by Senator James McCreary of Kentucky, who will deliver the opening address. Other speakers will be Senator Overman, Hon. John Sharp Williams, Chief Justice Walter Clark, Richmond; Pearson Hobson, and others.

ANDES, THE GREAT 1-MINUTE ADVERTISER

Won't Sell Medicine but One Minute—These Sales the Talk of the Town—If You Saw It You Won't Forget It.

There are many events that happen only once in a life-time. Each one of us can look back and recall some event useful in character that has some distinctive phase, that so stamped itself on memory's pages, that forget, we cannot. Other things of lesser importance come and go, we think of them today, then straightway they are forgotten forever. While a few—a very few—possess characteristics distinctly their own, something different from anything or anybody we ever saw, and we forget, never! Such an one is the Great Andes. His works and methods are all his own. The whole city looks on in wonder. We see the great work and appreciate his original methods. Andes Prescription and Oil have accomplished cures for cases that had baffled science and friends solicitations, scores of cures are reported at the Drug stores daily, while the public watches with interest and genuine concern. Mr. Andes came to us as an advertiser and while here proved himself such in every sense of the word. On his brilliantly lighted electric platform at the corner of Sixth and Red Cross he appeared nightly while in this city. Clad in his coat of gold bearing Uncle Sam's $20 gold coins for buttons, and ablaze with $25,000 worth of diamonds set in rings and shirt studs, ranging in size from four to eight karats each. In from a 5 to 10 minute lecture he forcibly told how Andes Great Remedies cure. Then came the most interesting part of the whole program. He said, "Get your dollars ready, while the band plays for one minute!" It would do you good to see how rapidly The Great Advertiser exchanges medicine for dollars. When this "One-minute-sale" is started it looks as if the shock of an earthquake had been felt and a volcano had struck the treasury department at Washington City and was belching forth silver dollars. When the one minute was up the sale positively closed, though it left scores of hands in the air stretched forth to exchange a shining dollar for one of the coveted bottles. These, however, must await the next day and seek Bellamy's drug store, headquarters for Andes Remedies, or at their nearest Pharmacy, every drug store in the city handling Andes Remedies.

The Great One Minute Advertiser's methods are so startling he does not have to remain indefinitely in a city for the public to become acquainted with his remedies. He makes his campaign, places his medicine and leaves the druggists to reap the results of his labors, while he hastens to the next city to accomplish the same wonderful results as in the city just left.
